The scripture in regard to marrying and given in marriage has been fulfilled here recently, and as a result a number of weddings have occurred. It might be interesting to some of the Mont Young and ten others are readers to note a few unusual happenings along this line. Quite a number of years ago Seymore Morris married one Elizabeth Marrs, and after living in seeming happiness till their small family of two girls and one boy estranged and separated, the husband going to W. Va. and after a time the wife got a divorce and each mar rfed, but both proved a failure and or est child the husband returned but notwithstanding it was their dying childs request they could not reconcile matters. So in a short time the taken her sisters man and eloped and fived with him for a time and the wife having secured a divorce from he second husband, Peter Collins made Collins, took his fifth wife in the person of Mrs. Annie Datton, who although only 40 years of age and has been a widow five years, has given hirth to 15 children, and also a few days later Ep Ward of Coal, was united in marriage to Mrs Columbia Meek the step mother of Mrs Dutton mentioned above. It being the grooms fourth venture he being 70 years old. Adam Crum, of near Inez came over and contured the widow of Thomas Wiley Fitch, the shoe man sells Balchidge, of near this place, the povelty of this was that the groom was 70 years old and the bride gave up a pension and last, but not least was the marriage of Major Boyd a kid weighing 115 pounds of this place to a Miss Charles, of Martin county She is 15 and weighs 230 just twice that of her husband,

I had forgotten the elopement a short time ago of Lewis Salmon and Miss. Sallie- Music, young daughter of Newton Music, both of this place They were captured up Sandy and brought back, and under a vow to marry they were released, but alas for Salmon, his former wife of W. Va has appeared on the scene and to make matters worse she is a sister
